NEW ARMY RUSHED BY KAISER TO SAVE VON KLUCK FROM TRAP

DESTRUCTION OF CATHEDRAL OF RHEIMS AROUSES FRENCH TO FURY AGAINST GERMANY

Historic Edifice Was Housing German Wounded, Who Were Saved by French Doctors—Kaiser's Troops Defend Shelling of Church.

BORDEAUX, Sept. 21 (United Press).—President Poincaré to-day directed a formal protest to all neutral powers against the destruction of the Cathedral of Rheims by the German artillery. The bombardment is declared to have been conducted "for the sole pleasure of destroying."

The protest of the French Government states:

"The German troops, without military necessity, but for the sole pleasure of destroying, subjected the Rheims Cathedral to a systematic and furious bombardment. The famous basilica is now a mass of ruins."

The Government denounces the "revolting act of vandalism," and declares it should arouse the indignation of the world.

A detailed account of the German bombardment of Rheims has become available here.

It relates that the cannonading of the French city has lasted for a fortnight. The Germans are said to have used petroleum shells, and the city was set afire in many places.

Whole blocks of houses have been reduced to heaps of smoking ruins. That part of the population which was unable or unwilling to leave the city was without food for several days. The people took shelter in cellars. A certain number of them were injured, but little or no loss of life has been reported.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (Associated Press).—The French Ambassador, Jules J. Jusserand, presented the protest of his Government against the destruction of the Rheims cathedral to the State Department to-day and personally read it to Secretary Bryan. It was signed by Foreign Minister Delcasse.

PARIS, Sept. 21 (United Press).—Heretofore Paris has viewed the war calmly, without great show of passion or hatred. But the statement of the Government that the world-famous Cathedral of Rheims was destroyed by German shell fire, "without military necessity, but for the sole pleasure of destroying," has aroused the city.

The historic and artistic loss with the destruction of the Cathedral has stirred the city more than would the destruction of a division of men, which would be accepted as one of the fortunes of war.

Rheims, where the ruins of the famous cathedral are still smoking, is likely to prove an object of controversy long after the military forces now in the field have ceased to contend for its possession.

EYE WITNESS TELLS HOW GERMAN GUNNERS SHELLED CATHEDRAL AT RHEIMS.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in Rheims, telegraphing of the destruction of the cathedral, says:

"The fire started between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. All day large shells had been crashing into the town. At least 500 fell between early morning—when the bombardment began—and sunset. A whole quarter of the city, several hundred yards square, had been set on fire, and street after street in succession was lined with blazing houses and shops."

"Nothing could be done but to try to isolate the flaming district from the rest of the town, and even that work was carried on under the greatest risk from the incessant shell fire. The cathedral had been turned on Thursday morning into a hospital for the German wounded so as to save it from destruction."

"The German troops, without military necessity, but for the sole pleasure of destroying, subjected the Rheims Cathedral to a systematic and furious bombardment. The famous basilica is now a mass of ruins."
